ARTICLE I
The Association

1.1 Composition.

The Association shall mean the Cherrington Manor Homeowners Association, a Pennsylvania Not-For-Profit Corporation. Incorporated on April 25, 1990, as more fully set forth in the Replacement Cherrington Manor Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions dated July 15, 1996, and recorded with the Allegheny County Recorder of Deeds Office at Deed Book Volume 9772, Page 472. The Association shall consist of all of the Unit Owners acting as a group in accordance with Pennsylvania law, the Replacement Declaration and these By-Laws. The Association shall have the responsibility of administering the planned community, establishing the means and methods of collecting assessments and charges, arranging for the management of the community and performing all of the other acts that may be required or permitted to be performed by the Association pursuant to the Governing Documents and Pennsylvania law. The foregoing responsibilities shall be performed by the Board of Directors as more particularly set forth in the Replacement Declaration and these By-Laws.

1.2 Annual Meeting.

The annual meetings of the Association shall be held in November of each year. At such annual meeting, the Board of Directors shall be elected by ballot of the Unit Owners in accordance with the requirements set forth in these By-Laws and such other business as may properly come before the meeting may be transacted.

1.3 Place of Meeting.

The meetings of the Association shall be held at the principal office of the Association or at such other suitable place convenient to the Unit Owners as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

1.4 Special Meetings.

The President shall call a special meeting of the Association if so directed by resolution of the Board of Directors or upon a petition signed and presented to the Secretary by Unit Owners entitled to cast at least fifty (50%) percent of the votes in the Association. A notice of any special meeting shall state the time, place and purpose thereof. Such meetings shall be held within forty-five (45) days after receipt by the Secretary of such resolution or petition; provided, however, if the purpose includes the consideration or rejection of a budget or capital expenditure pursuant to these By-Laws, such meeting shall be held within fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Secretary of such resolution or petition. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the notice.

1.5 Notice of Meetings.

The Secretary shall give to each Unit Owner a notice of each annual or special meeting of the Association, at least ten (10) but not more than forty-five (45) days prior to such meeting, stating the time, place and purpose thereof, including, without limitation, any proposed budget or assessment changes, the general nature of any proposed amendment to the By-Laws or Declaration, and any proposal to remove a member of the Board of Directors or Officer. The giving of a Notice of Meeting in the manner provided in this Section and as otherwise provided by these By-Laws, shall be considered service of notice.

1.6 Adjournment of Meetings.

If at any meeting of the Association a quorum is not present, Unit Owners entitled to cast a majority of the votes represented at such meeting may adjourn the meeting to a time not less than forty-eight (48) hours after the time for which the original meeting was called.

1.7 Voting.

Each Owner of a Lot shall have one (1) vote per Lot owned by such Owner. Where more than one (1) Person owns a Lot, the vote attached to the Lot shall be voted as an undivided single vote, but all such individuals shall be entitled to attend meetings, and with the limitation of having the vote among them, to participate therein. Except with respect to election of members of the Board of Directors and except where a greater number is required by law, the Replacement Declaration, or these By-Laws, the Unit Owners constituting fifty (50%) percent of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting is required to adopt decisions at any meeting of the Association. 1.8 Proxies.

A vote may be cast in person or by proxy. If a Unit is owned by more than one (1) Person, each Owner of the Unit may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other Owners of the Unit through a duly executed proxy. Such proxy may be granted by any Unit Owner in favor of only another Unit Owner, a holder of a mortgage on a Unit or the Declarant. Proxies shall be duly executed in writing, shall be valid for only the particular meeting designated therein and must be filed with the Secretary before the appointed time of the meeting. Such proxy shall be deemed revoked only upon actual receipt by the Person presiding over the meeting, of written notice of revocation from the Grantor(s) of the proxy. No proxy shall be valid for a period in excess of sixty (60) days after the execution thereof. A proxy is void if it is not dated.

1.9 Quorum.

Except as set forth below, the presence in person or by proxy of Unit Owners constituting twenty (20%) percent or more of the aggregate number of all Unit Owners at the commencement of all meetings shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Unit Owners Association. If a meeting is adjourned pursuant to Section 1.6 above, the quorum at such second meeting shall be deemed present throughout said meeting of the Association if persons entitled to cast ten (10%) percent of the votes are present in person or by proxy.

1.10 Conduct of Meetings

The President (or in the President's absence, the Vice-President) shall preside over all meetings of the Association, and the Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings and record in a minute book all resolutions adopted at the meeting, as well as a record of all transactions occurring thereat. The President may appoint a person to serve as Parliamentarian at any meeting of the Association. (b) Nominations may be submitted from the floor at the meeting at which the election is held.

2.4 Removal or Resignation of Members of the Board of Directors.

At any regular or special meeting of the Association duly called, any one (1) or more of the members of the Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by Unit Owners entitled to cast a majority of all votes in the Association and a successor may then and there be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. Any Unit Owner proposing removal of a Board Member shall give notice thereof to the Secretary. Any member whose removal has been proposed by a Unit Owner shall be given at least ten (10) days' notice by the Secretary of the time, place and purpose of the meeting and shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting. A member of the Board of Director may resign at any time and shall be deemed to have resigned upon transfer of title to his/her Unit.

2.5 Vacancies.

Vacancies in the Board of Directors caused by any reason, other than the removal of a member by a vote of the Unit Owners, shall be filled by a vote of a majority of the remaining Board of Directors at a special meeting of the Board of Directors held for such purpose promptly after the occurrence of any such vacancy, even though the members at such a meeting may constitute less than a quorum. Each person so elected shall be a member of the Board of Directors for the remainder of the term of the member being replaced.

2.6 Organization Meeting.

The first meeting of the Board of Directors following each annual meeting of the Association shall be held within ten days thereafter at such time and place as shall be fixed by the President (even if he is the outgoing President) at the meeting at which such Board of Directors shall have been elected.

2.7 Regular Meetings.

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and place as shall be determined from time to time by a majority of the Board members, but such meetings shall be held at least every four (4) months during each calendar year. Notice of regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given to each Board member, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, at least three (3) business days prior to the day named for such meeting.

2.8 Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President on at least three business days' notice to each Board member, given by mail, facsimile or e-mail, which notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be called by the President or Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of at least two members of the Board of Directors.

2.9 Waiver of Notice.

Any Board member may at any time, in writing, waive notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a member at any meeting of the Board of Directors shall constitute a waiver of notice by him/her of the time, place and purpose of such meeting. If all members are present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

2.10 Quorum of the Board of Directors.

At all meetings of the Board of Directors a majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the votes of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the decision of the Board of Directors. If at any meeting of the Board of Directors there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice. One or more members of the Board of Directors may participate in and be counted for quorum purposes at any meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other.

2.11 Compensation.

No member of the Board of Directors shall receive any compensation from the Association for acting as such, but may be reimbursed for any expenses incurred in the performance of his/her duties.

2.12 Conduct of Meetings.

The President shall preside over all meetings of the Board of Directors and the Secretary or Managing Agent shall keep a minute book of the Board of Directors' meetings, recording therein all resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors and a record of all transactions and proceedings occurring at such meetings. The then current edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the conduct of the meetings of the Board of Directors if and to the extent not in conflict with the Replacement Declaration, these By-Laws or the Act.

2.13 Action Without Meeting.

Any action by the Board of Directors required or permitted to be taken at any meeting may be taken without a meeting if all of the members of the Board of Directors shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Any such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors.

2.14 Validity of Contracts with Interested Board of Directors Members.

No contract or other transaction between the Association and one or more members of its Board of Directors or between the Association and any corporation, firm or association in which one or more members of the Board of Directors are directors or officers, or are financially interested, shall be void or voidable because such member or members of the Board of Directors are present at any meeting of the Board of Directors which authorized or approved the contract or transaction or because his/her or their votes are counted, unless the circumstances specified in either of the following subparagraphs exists:

2.14.1. The fact that a Member of the Board of Directors is also such a director or officer or has such financial interest is disclosed or known to the Board and is noted in the minutes thereof, and the Board authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction in good faith by a vote sufficient for the purpose without counting the vote or votes of such member or members of the Board of Directors; or

2.14.2. The contract or transaction is made in good faith and is not unconscionable to the Association at the time it is authorized, approved or ratified.

2.15 Inclusion of Interested Board Members in the Quorum.

Any member of the Board of Directors holding such director or officer position or having such financial interest in another corporation, firm or association may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies a contract or transaction of the type described in Section 2.14 hereof.

ARTICLE III
Officers

3.1 Designation.

The principal officers of the Association shall be the President, the Vice President, the Secretary and the Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Board of Directors. The President and Vice President shall be Unit Owners and members of the Board of Directors. An officer other than the President may hold more than one office.

3.2 Election of Officers.

The officers of the Association shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the organization meeting of each new Board and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

3.3 Removal of Officers.

Upon the affirmative vote of a majority of all members of the Board of Directors, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and a successor may be elected at any meeting of the Board of Directors called for such purpose.

3.4 President.

The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association, preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors and have all of the general powers and duties which are incident to the office of president of a corporation organized under the laws of Pennsylvania including without limitation the power to appoint committees from among the Unit Owners from time to time as the President may in his/her discretion decide is appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Association. The President shall cease holding such office at such time as the President ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors.

3.4 Vice President.

The Vice President shall take the place of the President and perform the duties of the President whenever the President shall be absent or unable to act. If neither the President nor the Vice President is able to act, the Board of Directors shall appoint some other member of the Board of Directors to act in the place of the President, on an interim basis. The Vice President shall also perform such other duties as shall from time to time be delegated or assigned to the Vice President by the Board of Directors or by the President. The Vice President shall cease holding such office at such time as the Vice President ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors.

3.6 Secretary.

The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors, have charge of such books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct, maintain a register setting forth the place to which all notices to Unit Owners shall be delivered and, in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of secretary of a corporation organized under the laws of Pennsylvania. 3.9 Compensation of Officers.

ARTICLE IV
Common Expenses; Budgets

4.1 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall be the calendar year unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the first fiscal year shall begin upon the recordation of the Declaration.

4.2 Preparation and Approval of Budget.

4.2.1 At least thirty (30) days before its annual meeting, the Association shall prepare a budget covering estimated costs of the Association during the coming year. The Association shall, in addition, fix the date of commencement and amount of assessment attributable to each Owner and prepare a list of assessments. The Association shall cause a copy of the budget and assessment to be delivered to each Owner at least thirty (30) days before the annual meeting. The budget and assessment shall become effective unless disapproved, at the annual meeting, by a vote of at least sixty-six and two-thirds (66 2/3%) percent of members of the Association. The Association shall obtain qualified bids for services to be supplied to the Association and shall accept such bids as the Association deems appropriate.

4.2.2 The Board of Directors shall make reasonable efforts to meet the deadlines set forth above, but compliance with such deadlines shall not be a condition precedent to the effectiveness of any budget or the responsible to satisfy assessments.

4.3 Initial Budget.

At or prior to the time assessment of Common Expenses commences, the Board of Directors shall adopt the budget, as described in this Article, for the period commencing on the date the Board determines that assessments shall begin and ending on the last day of the fiscal year during which such commencement date occurs. Assessments shall be levied and become a lien against the Unit Owners during such period.

4.4 Delivery of Approved Budget and Notice of Capital Expenditure; Effect of Failure to Prepare or Adopt Budget.

The Board of Directors shall deliver to all Unit Owners copies of each budget approved by the Board of Directors and notice of any capital expenditure approved by the Board of Directors promptly after each such approval. The failure or delay of the Board of Directors to prepare or adopt a budget for any fiscal year shall not constitute a waiver or release in any manner of a Unit Owner's obligation to pay such Unit Owner's allocable share of the Common Expenses as herein provided whenever the same shall be determined and, in the absence of any annual budget or adjusted budget, each Unit Owner shall continue to pay each assessment at the rate established for the previous fiscal year until the new annual or adjusted budget shall have been adopted.

4.5 Accounts; Audits.

All sums collected by the Board of Directors with respect to assessments against the Unit Owners or from any other source may be commingled into a single fund. All books and records of the Association shall be kept in accordance with good and accepted accounting practices.

4.6 Payment of Common Expenses.

No Unit Owner may exempt himself from liability for his contribution toward Common Expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the Common Elements or by abandonment of his Unit. No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Expenses assessed against his Unit subsequent to the date of recordation of a conveyance by him in fee of such Unit. The purchaser of a Unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the selling Unit Owner for all unpaid assessments against the latter for his proportionate share of the Common Expenses up to the time of such recordation, without prejudice for the purchaser's right to recover from the selling Unit Owner amounts paid by the purchaser therefor; provided, however, that any such purchaser shall be entitled to a statement setting forth the amount of the unpaid assessments against the selling Unit Owner within five days following a written request therefor to the Board of Directors or Managing Agent and such purchaser shall not be liable for, nor shall the Unit conveyed be subject to a lien for, any unpaid assessments with respect to the time period covered by such statement, in excess of the amount therein set forth.

4.7 Statement of Common Expenses.

The Board of Directors shall promptly provide any Unit Owner, contact purchaser or proposed mortgagee so requesting the same in writing with a written statement of all unpaid assessments for Common Expenses due from such Unit Owner. The Board of Directors may impose a reasonable charge for the preparation of such statement to cover the cost of its preparation, to the extent permitted by the Act.

ARTICLE V
Compliance and Default

5.1 Relief. Each Unit Owner shall be governed by, and shall comply with, all of the terms of the Replacement Declaration, these By-Laws, the Rules and Regulations and Pennsylvania law, as any of the same may be amended from time to time. In addition to the remedies provided in the Act and the Declaration, a default by a Unit Owner shall entitle the Association, acting through its Board of Directors or through the Managing Agent, to the following relief:

5.0.1. Additional Liability. Each Unit Owner shall be liable for the expense of all maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his act, neglect or carelessness or the act, neglect or carelessness of his tenants, guests, invitees or licensees. Such liability shall include any increase in casualty insurance premiums occasioned by improper use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of any Units or its appurtenances. Nothing contained herein, however, shall be construed as modifying any waiver by any insurance company of its rights of subrogation.

5.0.2. Costs and Attorney's Fees. In any proceeding arising out of any alleged default by a Unit Owner, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of such proceeding and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be determined by the court.

5.0.3. No Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association, the Board of Directors or of a Unit Owner to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by the Replacement Declaration, these By-Laws, the Board of Directors' Rules and Regulations or Pennsylvania law shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Association, the Board of Directors or the Unit Owner to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition in the future. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association, the Board of Directors or any Unit Owner pursuant to any term, provision, covenant or condition of the Replacement Declaration, these By-Laws, the Rules and Regulations or the Act shall be deemed to be cumulative and the exercise of any one or more thereof shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party exercising the same from exercising such other privileges as may be granted to such party by the Replacement Declaration, these By-Laws, the Rules and Regulations or by Pennsylvania law.

5.0.4. Abating and Enjoining Violations by Unit Owners. The violation of any of the Rules and Regulations adopted by the Board of Directors, the breach of any By-law contained herein or the breach of any provision of the Replacement Declaration or Pennsylvania law shall give the Board of Directors the right, in addition to any other rights: (a) to enter the Unit in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and summarily to abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist therein contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Board of Directors shall not thereby be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass; or (b) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such breach.

ARTICLE VI
Amendments

6.1 Amendments to By-Laws.

These By-Laws may be modified or amended only by vote of a majority of the Unit Owners casting vote at any meeting duly called for the purpose of amending these By-Laws.

Additionally, if any amendment is necessary in the judgment of the Board of Directors to cure any ambiguity or to correct or supplement any provision of these By-Laws that is defective, missing or inconsistent with any other provision hereof, or with the Act or the Declaration, or if such amendment is necessary to conform to the requirements of the Federal National Mortgage Association or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation with respect to planned community projects, then at any time and from time to time the Board of Directors may effect an appropriate corrective amendment without the approval of the Unit Owners or the holders of any liens on all or any part of the Property, upon receipt by the Board of Directors of an opinion from independent legal counsel to the effect that the proposed amendment is permitted by the terms of this sentence.

ARTICLE IIII
Miscellaneous

7.1 Notices.

All notices, demands, bills, statements or other communications under these By-Laws shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered personally or if sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt, postage prepaid (or otherwise as the law may permit), (i) if to a Unit Owner, at the single address which the Unit Owner shall designate in writing and file with the Secretary or, if no such address is designated, at the address of the Unit of such Owner, or (ii) if to the Association, the Board of Directors or to the Managing Agent, at the principal office of the Managing Agent or at such other address as shall be designated by notice in writing to the Unit Owners pursuant to this Section. If a Unit is owned by more than one Person, each such Person who so designates an address in writing to the Secretary shall be entitled to receive all notices hereunder.

7.2 Captions.

The captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these By-Laws or the intent of any provision thereof.

7.3 Gender.

The use of the masculine gender in these By-Laws shall be deemed to include the feminine and neuter genders and the use of the singular shall be deemed to include the plural, and vice versa, whenever the context so requires.
