Subsequent regular annual meetings of the Members shall be held on the first Monday in April of each year thereafter or as otherwise fixed by the Board of Directors. If the day for the annual meeting of the Members is a legal holiday, the meeting will be held on the first day following that is not a legal holiday.

3.2. Special Meetings. After termination of the period of Declarant control in accordance with the Declaration, special meetings of the Members may be called at any time by the president or by the Board of Directors, or on written request of the Members who are entitled to vote one-fourth (1/4) of all the votes of the membership.

3.3. Notice of Meeting. Written notice of each meeting of the Members shall be given by, or at the direction of, the secretary or person authorized to call the meeting, by mailing a copy of the notice, by United States mail, postage prepaid, at least fifteen days before the meeting to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting, addressed to the Member's address last appearing on the books of the Association, or supplied by the Member to the Association for the purpose of notice. The notice shall specify the place, day, and hour of the meeting and the items on the agenda, including the general nature of any proposed amendment to the Declaration or these Bylaws; any budget or assessment changes; and any proposal to remove a director or officer.

3.4. Quorum. The presence at the meeting of Members entitled to cast, or of proxies entitled to cast, ten percent (10%) of the votes of the membership shall constitute a quorum for any action except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these Bylaws. If, however, a quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting, the Members entitled to vote at the meeting shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or be represented.

3.5. Proxies. At all meetings of Members, each Member may vote in person or by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and filed with the secretary. Every proxy shall be revocable. A Member may not revoke a proxy except by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the Association. A proxy is void if it is not dated or purports to be revocable without notice. A proxy terminates one year after its date unless it specifies a shorter term.

3.6. Voting. Voting at all meetings of the Association shall be on a per Unit basis, with each Unit entitled to one (1) vote. Cumulative voting is not permitted.

Such certificate shall be valid unless revoked by a subsequent certificate similarly executed. In the absence of such named Designated Unit Member for the meeting, the Unit owner who shall be entitled to cast the vote of such Unit shall be the Unit owner owning such Unit who is present. If the Designated Unit Member is not present, and more than one other owner owning such Unit is present, then such vote shall be cast only in accordance with their unanimous agreement. There shall be deemed to be unanimous agreement if any one of the multiple owners casts the votes allocated to that Unit without protest being made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by any of the other owners of the Unit. Any certificate executed by all Unit owners shall be valid until revoked by a subsequent certificate similarly executed. Except where execution by Unit owners in the same manner as a deed is required, and subject to the Declaration and these Bylaws, wherever the approval or disapproval of a Unit Member is required by the Declaration or the Bylaws, such approval or disapproval shall be made only by the person who would be entitled to cast the vote of such Unit at any meeting of the Association.
